

Contents

Acknowledgements	7
Introduction Andrew James Johnston, Kai Wiegandt	9
Scott-land and the Invention of the Historical Novel: Walter Scott's Waverley Cordula Lemke	19
Neo-Victorian Novels: Staging Historicity in John Fowles's The French Lieutenant's Woman Claudia Olk	31
Historiographic Metafiction and the History of Nature: John Fowles's The French Lieutenant's Woman and Graham Swift's Waterland Ute Berns	47
The Production of History: M. G. Vassanji's Postcolonial Historical Novel on the Indian Ocean Rim Russell West-Pavlov	73
History as Struggle of Generations: J. M. Coetzee's The Master of Petersburg Kai Wiegandt	87
Figurations of Authorship in Postmodern Historical Fiction Helga Schwalm	105
History, the Contemporary, and Life in Time: Timescapes in Ian McEwan's and Julian Barnes's Novels Heike Hartung	119
Atonement – Ian McEwan's Canterbury Tale ? Andrew James Johnston	145
Thomas Cromwell, Our Contemporary: The Poetics of Subjective Experience as Intersubjective Ethics in Wolf Hall Renate Brosch	163

‘There’ll just be progress of a sort’: Elegizing the Historical Novel in Jim Crace’s Harvest Margitta Rouse	185
Biographical Notes	205
Index	207