

Contents

Roman Bartosch and Julia Hoydis
Introduction: Teaching Otherwise? Towards Posthuman(ist) Pedagogical Practice	7
Berbeli Wanning
Posthuman from the Beginning? How Animal Stories for Children Shape the Anthropocentric Worldview	25
Christian Ludwig and Elizabeth Shipley
Reading and Creating the Posthuman in the Primary and Secondary EFL Classroom – Report of a Posthuman Teaching Experiment with Graphic Novels, Children's Books and Visual Media	45
Stefan Herbrechter
What Makes Us Human? Teaching Posthumanism in Secondary School	75
Christian Schmitt-Kilb and Roman Bartosch
From a Dog's Eye View? Negotiating Anthropomorphism and Anamorphosis in Eva Hornung's Dog Boy (2009) and John Berger's King: A Street Story (1999)	101
Gigi Adair
Postcolonial and Indigenous Posthumanism	121
Alessandra Boller and Eckart Voigts
"What counts as a liveable life and a grievable death?" – Critical Posthumanism and Cloning in Kazuo Ishiguro's Never Let Me Go and Caryl Churchill's A Number	151
Julia Hoydis
Posthuman Lessons from the Past and the Future: Narrating Otherness between History, Folklore, and Technology	175
Contributors' Addresses	206
	5