

Contents

Bogdan Murgescu and Ioana Pintilie Introduction .....	9
I Intellectuals Facing the Challenges of World War I .....	13
Victor Neumann What is Kulturation? On the Theory of Identity and the Tragedies of World War I .....	15
Mircea Flonta and Cătălin Vasilescu Between Patriotism and Universalism. World War I and the Dissolution of the Scientific Community .....	25
Temistocle Bîrsan and Dan Tiba Romanian Mathematicians in World War I .....	41
II Societies Dealing with War Traumas .....	47
Ioana Ionel World War I and Some of its Major Effects on the Environment .....	49
Ștefan Neațu World War I – The Beginning of the Chemical Warfare Agents Era and their Impact on Mankind over the last 100 Years .....	61
Maciej Górny The Neurotic State at War. Austro-Hungarian War Psychiatry and Its Aftermath in East Central Europe .....	73
Oltea Joja The Timeless Trauma: Shell Shock, the Posttraumatic Stress Disorder of World War I .....	81
Dorin Stănescu Ulysses in the World War I. Returning by Train at the End of the War. A View from Literature, Memoirs and Diaries .....	103

III Nations and States Coping with War and Peace .....	113
Aleksandar Jakir
Croats in World War I: Loyalty/Disloyalty and the End of Austria-Hungary, 1918 .....	115
Milan Ristović
Around the Year 1918: The Yugoslav State between Great Expectations and Reality .....	133
Alin Matei
Peacemaking in the East. Romania and the Issue of Minority Protection at the Paris Peace Conference (1919) .....	151
Roman Holec
Czechoslovakia, Romania and the Question of Danube after World War I .....	165
Andrei Florin Sora
“What country doesn’t have its traitors?”: Debating the Concepts of “Traitor” and “Collaboration” in Romanian Society, 1916–1922 .....	177
Contributors .....	193
Index .....	199