

Contents

Geneviève Susemihl & Grit Alter:
Teaching Indigenous Studies: An Introduction	7
Dawn T. Maracle:
The Myth of Canada the Great: The Two Row Wampum as Foundational to Understanding the Indian Act and Haudenosaunee/Indigenous-Settler Relations	15
Nina Reuther:
Living within the Land: Indigenous Environmental Justice and the Concept of Stewardship to the Land	39
Grit Alter:
Decolonizing the Arctic Bookshelf: What Elliot and Inukpak Can (Not) Reveal about the North	63
Eva Gruber:
Transgressing Boundaries – Building Bridges: Engaging with First Nations Cultures through Trickster Narratives	83
Gabriele Linke:
The Films of Alanis Obomsawin and the Politics of Indigenous Self-Representation	107
Christoph Straub:
Negotiating Urban Indigeneity: Gender, Class, and Agency in The Body Remembers When the World Broke Open	131

Geneviève Susemihl:
Exhibiting Cultures and Representing 'Otherness': Museums and Indigenous Peoples in Canada	153
Geneviève Susemihl, Grit Alter, Eva Gruber, Nina Reuther, Christoph Straub & Albert Rau:
Residential Schools: Resistance, Resilience, and Reconciliation	177
Contributors' Addresses	221