

Table of Contents

Preface vii

JULIA NITZ AND AXEL R. SCHÄFER

Introduction 1

I Gender and Political Activism

MARIANNE S. WOKECK

Women in Early America—Barred from Politics but with Influence 15

MANFRED BERG

“A Vitally Necessary War Measure”: Woodrow Wilson’s Conversion to Woman Suffrage 31

SABINE SIELKE

“Stronger Together”? The Seriality of Feminism, the Gender of Misogyny, and the Case of Hillary Clinton 47

PHILIP JOHN DAVIES

The 2016 Election: Post-truth, Post-feminist, or just Post-Clinton? 69

II The Iconography and Visual Representation of Gender in Media and Politics

VOLKER DEPKAT

Male Politicians in Women’s Clothes:
Reflections on a Visual Narrative in the Early Republic 87

FRANK MEHRING

Rosies Across Ideologies: Intermedial and Transnational Approaches to an American Female Icon 103

EVA BOESENBERG
Michelle Obama and the Power of Representation 125

CARMEN BIRKLE
“Yes She Can”? The Hillary Paradox and American TV Series 143

BRIGITTE GEORGI-FINDLAY
Female Politicians in Contemporary American Television Series 169

III Writing the Political in Women’s Fiction and Non-Fiction

THEODORA TSIMPOUKI
Gender Politics and Architectural Space in Edith Wharton’s
The Age of Innocence 181

ALFRED HORNUNG
Charmian Kittredge London’s Our Hawaii 199

HANS BAK
From Union Square to Rome: Revisiting the Religious Radicalism of Dorothy Day (1897–1980) 213

ANDREW S. GROSS
Refugee Blues: Hannah Arendt, Statelessness, and the Limits of Identity 233

JERZY DURCZAK
Images, Words, and Politics: Sally Mann’s Hold Still 249

GABRIELE LINKE
The Personal and the Political in Selected African American Congresswomen’s Memoirs 259

IV Appendix

List of Contributors 281

Selected Bibliography on Women and US Politics 2016–2019 289